

Thesis Advisor List

Department of Economics

rev. Feb 2008

The following list is not all-inclusive. Any Harvard professor may be an advisor as long as he or she has an appropriate economics background. Check with the Undergraduate Office if in doubt. Please note that some faculty on this list may go on leave during the 2007-2008 academic year. We will update this list later in the semester when that information becomes available.
